

Researcher / Consultant

at

MEDIA TENOR

Bonn London Lugano New York Ostrava Pretoria St. Petersburg Windhoek Zurich

Media Tenor is the leading consultant in the field of external communications, reputation & risk management with a client list including Microsoft, Goldman Sachs, PWC, Harvard Business School, Allianz, Goldfields, Toyota, US Government, World Economic Forum, Amnesty International and Transparency International among others).

Media Tenor Group strives to achieve active and strategic reporting that strengthens client credibility and corporate image. Through its strategic concept of media content analysis, it ensures better and comprehensive communication action plans that are necessary for corporate value.

For our research team we are seeking a young enthusiastic candidate interested in mass media and scientific research.

Skills required:

- Interest in mass media and international affairs
- PhD degree in media science, business, politics or sociology
- Working experience in research for min 1 year
- Strong analytical thinking
- Enthusiasm for research
- Native English, second/third language is welcomed
- Computer skills (Excel, Word, Power Point, SPSS)
- Advance Statistics skills
- Presentation skills and customer orientation

What we offer:

- Personal development
- Long term employment
- International working environment
- Great team spirit
- Unique scientific approach

What we offer:

- Personal development
- Flexible working time
- Long term employment
- International working environment
- Great team spirit
- Unique scientific approach

For more information please contact:

Mr. Ralph Winter
r.winter@mediatenor.de

